The best approach for understanding and solving complex environmental problems

Joseph J. Hochreiter, CGWP / Senior-Level Experience in Environmental Consulting

Professional Experience

Background

Mr. Hochreiter has 14 years of experience at the U.S. Geological Survey (Water Resources Division) and 17 years as principal at two leading environmental consulting firms: Environmental Resources Management (1987-1992) and Blasland, Bouck & Lee, Inc. (1992-2005). He retired from BBL in 2005 and soon after formed Senior Environmental Consulting, LLC. Mr. Hochreiter has directed the design, management, and technical oversight of significant site assessment and remediation projects throughout the Eastern United States. He also provides expert services in cases involving litigation.

Senior Environmental Consulting, LLC

The best approach for understanding and solving complex environmental problems

Joseph J. Hochreiter, CGWP / Senior-Level Experience in Environmental Consulting

Personal Resume

Joe Hochreiter, Jr.

Professionally, Joe is a Hydrologist who has recently retired as Vice President at BBL, Inc. an environmental consulting firm in King of Prussia, PA. Joe is now President of his own consulting practice, Senior Environmental Consulting, LLC of Yardley, PA. Joe provides Fortune 500 manufacturing companies, brownfields site redevelopers, and municipalities with scientific and engineering solutions to their environmental challenges. He has expertise in contaminated-site cleanup, risk management, regulatory compliance, and water-supply policy. Joe lives in Yardley with his wife, Eileen, and his two children, Erich and Kristen.

Joe has been very active as a volunteer in the community. After serving as a Disaster Services Team member since 1972, Joe served for seven years (1985-1992) on the Board of Directors of the Lower Bucks County Chapter of the Red Cross, where he managed Disaster Services and founded the Red Cross Homeless Shelter in Levittown. Currently he is on the Red Cross Shelter's Advisory Committee. He recently completed a 3-year term (2002-2005) as President of the Board of the Human Growth Center of Holland, a non-profit, psychotherapeutic counseling center that serves those who cannot afford private-practice therapy. He has worked with the Lower Bucks Center for Church and Community's "Welcoming the Stranger" program, which provides language and computer training to recent immigrants. He is also the recording engineer and Chairman of the Board for the non-profit Youth Orchestra of Bucks County, whose members include over 170 of the County's most talented young classical musicians.

Joe enjoys motorcycling, skydiving, and endurance kart racing. He communicates with people across the world as an active General Class Radio Amateur (WA3KTZ), having received his first license in 1968.
